

GLOBAL YOUTH SERVICE Day

Your school or organization still has time to be part of Global Youth Service Day on April 15th – 17th. Show how much you care about your school, neighborhood and community!

Dozens of partner schools and organizations will focus the power and energy of young people to improve the lives of others right now and develop their skills for the future.

You can plan a project– it's simple!

Complete a Project Summary Form on-line.

Not sure how to plan
a GYSD 2011 project?

We'll connect you to great project ideas and resources to help you plan a great project.

We can even connect you with an experienced volunteer for help planning your project.

Students, Sign-up Today!

Be part of Global Youth Service Day 2011. Sign-up to participate in a service project in your school, neighborhood or community.

Just Click Here to learn more about GYSD 2011 service projects, then contact the designated volunteer coordinator.

GYSD Projects may focus on any problem, need or opportunity in your school, neighborhood, or anywhere in your community. The only requirements are:

- Young people should be involved in planning and leading the project
- A responsible adult must assist in leading the project
- Young people must have opportunities to reflect on how their actions help improve their own lives and the lives of others
- Project activities should be held April 15th – 17th

Need more information about GYSD 2011 in Milwaukee?
Contact William Malone, Milwaukee Department of City Development, at william.malone@milwaukee.gov or call 414-286-5894.